WILMINGTON'S WAR.

As much as we rejoice with our Wilmington friends in the result of the election, and as strongly as we endorse their determination to rid their community of the negro defamer of white women, we believe they erred in demolishing the building in which the office was located and in the destruction of the material.

Nevertheless, placing ourselves in their places, we cannot say that we would have acted differently from them. The Wilmington people have been long suffering, and they have endured much. They cannot be too highly commended for restraining their righteous indignation until after the ballots were quietly cast and counted. It cannot be said they precipitated a row for political effect.

Peace and good order will grow out of yesterday's chaos in Wilmington. Col. Waddell, who is at the head of the city government, there now, being elected mayor last night, is a man of character, brains and courage. He will rightly direct and bravely maintain the principles of right and justice. Wilmington is now in safe hands.

We cannot leave this subject without expressing regrets that members of the colored race were the only recipients of the righteous wrath of Wilmington's outraged people. Such men as Marion Butler and Dan Russell are by far more to be blamed than any negro in the state, the scoundrel Manly always excepted.

WITHOUT A FATHER.

As did many citizens of Greensboro last night, we received a pamphlet entitled: "Suggestions and omissions in the so-called 'minutes' of the so-called 'investigation' of Dr. J. C. Kilgo by the board of trustees of Trinity College, August 30-31, 1898." It contains the famous "Challenge to the Jury," the "Suppressed Speech," the statements of Messrs. Beckwith and Boone, and an article headed the "State's Monumental Force," by John R. Webster, closing with Mr. Crew's letter. All of these, together with other matters brought out, have been published and heralded over the State in newspapers and newspaper supplements. Part of it was actually used in the populist hand book.

But what we wish to call attention to is the fact that this pamphlet is sent out without telling at whose instigation it was gotten up. It does not even contain the imprint of the printing office where it was printed. Of course everybody who is acquainted with the facts, know where it came from; but to a stranger it is "a child without a father." Its mission is to influence the people on the eve of the meeting of the two conferences. One remarkable feature about it is that it does not touch the issue as defined by Brother Albright, Mrs. Crawford, Weaver, Carraway and others. It deals only with what people in this section regard as a "dead issue," a matter that was duly and regularly determined by the board of trustees.

Now that the election is over and everybody is satisfied, let us once more get down to business in the matter of improvements, internal and otherwise for Greensboro. While the heat of the campaign was on business here was not entirely suspended and we emerge from the political scumming to find that building is still going on. And we call your attention to the matter, now in the hands of a committee, of securing street cars for the city and electric power for manufacturing in connection with the street lighting. In this matter we invite an expression of your views and the columns of the Telegram are open to you for that purpose.

A private letter to the editor, received last night from a friend who is holding office under the present state administration contains the following words: "I wish for you prosperity, and for the whole people the good government promised by the democrats. I see no reason why we should not have it, for they certainly have the brains of the state." No man who is old enough to remember the administra-

As to that Rumor.

Editor Telegram:—The rumor to which you referred in yesterday afternoon's paper that because of the trouble in Wilmington there was danger of the negroes attempting to burn Greensboro, is a great injustice to the colored people of this city. As a race, they have always shown themselves peaceable and law-abiding citizens, and the apprehension of danger from the source referred to is baseless. The above is written because the writer thinks it is due the colored people of Greensboro. Such rumors as this can only do harm, and should be suppressed.

[We only mentioned the rumor for the purpose of expressing our confidence in the safety of Greensboro through the good feeling existing. There has been at no time, we believe, no just cause for apprehension from the source mentioned, and it was a pleasure to us yesterday to say we did not believe it.—Ed. Telegram.]

Robbed the Grave.

A startling incident, of which Mr. John Oliver, of Philadelphia, was the subject, is narrated by him as follows: "I was in a most dreadful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides; no appetite - gradually growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Fortunately, a friend advised trying Electric Bitters: and to my great joy and surprise, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks and am now a well man. I know they saved my life, and robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50 cents per bottle at C. E. Holton's drug store.

Story

There was a farmer had two sons. And these two sons were brothers.

One of them bought his clothes of us, our neighbor caught the other.

And now the boy we fitted out is dapper, neat and chatty.

The other--Well, it's hard, but still--he looks a little ratty.

Moral

Don't buy the inferior quality when you get from us superior quality, superior make and excellent fitting garments for a small price.

BRIEF LOCAL MATTERS.

Lindan advertises a new lot of crack-ers. B. Cameron, of Stagville, was here last night. Jno. D. Huffines, of Reidsville, was in the city today.

Read Brown's special Wrap Sale for Saturday only. Rev. P. R. Law, of Lumber Bridge, spent last in the city.

Fresh oysters and dressed chickens at O'Connor's. See ad. George C. Heck, of New York, was at the Benbow last night.

Sol J. Lindan, returned last night, from an extended business trip south. Miss Carrie Welfare, of Salem, is visiting Miss Etta Rayle, of Asheboro street.

West's new cafe and restaurant will be open for business tomorrow. See his ad today.

Mrs. R. M. Roseboro, of Hickory, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. W. J. Weatherly, on North Davis street.

The time for the matinee tomorrow at the Academy has been changed from two to three o'clock. Please note this, all who intend to go.

"Bud" Smith and his sister, Miss Lala, left at noon today for a pleasure trip of eight or ten days to Washington, Baltimore and Philadelphia.

Mrs. W. P. Wood, of Trinity, who has been visiting for quite a while, Mrs. J. R. Pearce, on East Market street, returned home this morning, accompanied by James Pearce.

Chrysanthemum show still open. Be sure to avail yourself of this last opportunity to see the beautiful flowers, and get the delicious refreshments which are being served. Admission 10 cents. Children under 12 years, 5 cents.

Officer Scott yesterday afternoon, arrested a colored woman charged with theft. It developed at the trial, before Mayor Taylor, that at the house where the prisoner cooked on Greene street, ties, shirts, hats, etc, had been evaporating, at least fading into mystery. Finally nearly everything lost was found in the cooks trunk. Mayor Taylor bound the woman over to court in $50 bond, in default of which she was sent to jail.

The Greensboro Library. There will be a meeting of the subscribers to the Greensboro library, in the court house, Tuesday evening Nov 15th at 7:30 o'clock, for the purpose of effecting a permanent organization. All subscribers and all others interested in the establishment of this much needed institution, are cordially invited and urged to be present. Brief addresses will be made by a number of prominent citizens.

P. P. Claxton, Ch'm. Library Com. Mrs. R. H. Crawford, Sec. protem.

A Card. I wish to thank the kind neighbors and friends in Greensboro and vicinity for their sympathy and care in relation to the loss of my sister, Mrs. Johnson.

Laird, Schober & Mitchell's fine shoes for ladies and misses at the Carolina Shoe Co. 11n2t

Six juvenile passengers fainted and two men were injured in a school train's collision, at the grand central station, in New York.

From New Zealand. Reefton, New Zealand, Nov. 23, 1896. I am very pleased to state that since I took the agency of Chamberlain's medicine the sale has been very large, more especially of the Cough Remedy. In two years I have sold more of this particular remedy than of all other makes for the previous five years. As to its efficacy, I have been informed by scores of persons of the good result they have received from it, and know its value from the use of it in my own household. It is so pleasant to take that we have to place the bottle beyond the reach of the children.

E. J. Scantlebury. For sale by, C. E. Holton.

Any man who wants to buy a pair of winter tan shoes can be interested at Thacker & Brookmann's. They are showing some specially good values at $2.25, $2.50 and $3.00 a pair.

Tomorrow My new Cafe and Restaurant for ladies and gentlemen will be open for business. The neatest and most conveniently located restaurant in the city. Two large rooms and Lunch counter. The only up to date and fit for lady customers in the city. Opposite McAdoo House. You can always find the best Quail and Oysters, cooked and served in the best possible style. Call and see for yourself.

The Dog Spy.

Leonzo Bros. presented the "Dog Spy" at the Academy last night instead of "Brother Against Brother," as advertised. This was made necessary on account of the misplacement of some baggage enroute from Danville. However, the audience was highly pleased with the performance. Tonight "Brother Against Brother" will be played.

could abuse a bath tub most shamefully in fifteen minutes. But there is another kind of abuse of the bath tub in which the bather instead of the tub is abused. There is a right and a wrong way to bathe. Ice cold baths are not best. Take one that is warm or tepid. Then by means of a shower reduce the temperature until it is cool, but not cold. If you have no shower bath the same results can be secured by the use of our Shower Bath Ring. The best bath tub appliance on the market, and only $2.00. Doesn't wet your hair.

The Social Standing of most men is much higher than the sum of their income. To such men it must be good news to learn that they do not have to pinch themselves in order that they may pay the extravagant tailor's bills. We sell perfectly fitting clothes for business, semi-dress or full dress occasions of unquestionable style and superb qualities at prices which permit the saving of almost half the tailor's bills. Our best clothes are made by the famous New York tailors, Messrs. Fechtelner, Fishel & Co., whose label on every garment is a guarantee that the clothes are equal to "custom made" in every particular. Therefore, whether it is a sack suit, a cutaway or a Prince Albert frock, a pair of trousers, a top coat or an overcoat that you need, do yourself the justice to at least see our offerings--and then go to your tailor if you like--but you won't.
